HELP COLA!

THE LEGEND OF COLA PESCE

Once upon a time in Ancient Sicily, a beautiful island in the Mediterranean Sea, a young child called Cola Pesce aka Nick Fish a famous talented swimmer was challenged by the King to help him find a Crown which lay in a deep abyss beneath the island. Cola bravely accepted the challenge and during his journey to the abyss he escaped from a sea monster and then found three magical columns that support the island out of the water. However, Cola noticed that one of the columns was broken. After finding the royal crown Cola goes back to the King and tells him about the broken column and so the King announced to all the population to not become too fat just in case the island sunk into the abyss. Cola decided to go back in the abyss, mend the broken column and saved the island, so now the Sicilians could eat as much as they liked and Cola became a hero.
